Andante très expressif

The image displays a page of musical notation for the piece "Clair de Lune" by Claude Debussy. It features two staves: a piano (p) staff and a violin (v) staff. The piano part is written in a treble clef with a key signature of two flats (B-flat major/D minor) and a 3/4 time signature. The violin part is written in a treble clef with the same key signature and time signature. The score is divided into four systems. The first system includes the tempo marking "Andante très expressif" and a dynamic marking of "pp". The second system continues the piano part with a "pp" dynamic. The third system includes the tempo marking "Tempo rubato" and a dynamic marking of "pp". The fourth system continues the piano part with a "pp" dynamic. The score is watermarked with "sentence.apobooks.com" diagonally across the page.

- Grieg's "Morning Mood" - A vibrant and evocative piece that captures the beauty of a Norwegian sunrise.

Morning from Peer Gynt

Andante
Hornet mp
Piano mp

The first system of the musical score for 'Morning from Peer Gynt' features a Hornet part in the upper staff and a Piano accompaniment in the lower staff. The Hornet part begins with a melodic line of eighth notes, marked mp. The Piano accompaniment consists of chords and a simple bass line, also marked mp. The tempo is indicated as Andante.

The second system continues the musical score. The Hornet part maintains its melodic line, and the Piano accompaniment provides harmonic support with chords and a steady bass line.

The third system, starting at measure 11, shows the continuation of the Hornet's melody and the Piano accompaniment. The piece concludes with a final chord in the piano part.
