History of the Porsche 928

The Porsche 928 was developed as a replacement for the Porsche 911. The 911 was a successful sports car, but it was beginning to show its age. The 928 was designed to be more modern and luxurious than the 911, and it was also intended to be more comfortable and easier to drive. The 928 was introduced at the Geneva Motor Show in 1977, and it went on sale in the United States in 1978.

The 928 was a critical and commercial success. It was praised for its performance, handling, and luxury. The 928 was also a popular choice for celebrities and other high-profile individuals. Some of the most famous owners of the 928 include Tom Cruise, Jerry Seinfeld, and Jay Leno.

Design of the Porsche 928

The Porsche 928 is a beautifully designed car. It has a sleek and aerodynamic body, with a long hood and a short rear deck. The 928 also has a number of distinctive design features, such as its pop-up headlights, its integrated rear spoiler, and its signature "whale tail" rear end.

The interior of the 928 is just as well-appointed as the exterior. The cabin is spacious and comfortable, and it is equipped with a variety of high-quality materials. The 928 also has a number of advanced features for its time, such as a power sunroof, a power driver's seat, and a climate control system.

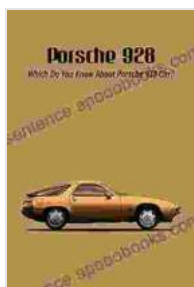

Performance of the Porsche 928

The Porsche 928 is a powerful and fast car. The base model 928 is powered by a 4.5-liter V8 engine that produces 240 horsepower. The 928 S is powered by a 4.7-liter V8 engine that produces 288 horsepower. And the 928 GTS is powered by a 5.0-liter V8 engine that produces 300 horsepower.

The 928 is capable of accelerating from 0 to 60 mph in under 7 seconds, and it has a top speed of over 150 mph. The 928 is also a very good handling car. It has a well-balanced chassis and a suspension that is tuned for both comfort and performance.

Legacy of the Porsche 928

The Porsche 928 is a classic sports car that is still highly sought-after today. It is a beautiful, powerful, and well-handling car that is sure to turn heads wherever it goes. The 928 is also a very practical car, with a spacious interior and a hatchback that makes it easy to load and unload luggage. If you are looking for a classic sports car that is both stylish and practical, the Porsche 928 is a great choice.
