The Genesis of a Musical Revolution

The Piano Guys' journey began in 2010 when four friends from Utah—Jon Schmidt, Steven Sharp Nelson, Paul Anderson, and Al van der Beek—decided to share their love of music with the world. Their YouTube channel quickly gained popularity, showcasing their virtuosic performances of classical pieces reimagined with a modern twist.

Their groundbreaking style caught the attention of Sony Masterworks, who signed the group to a record deal in 2012. Since then, they have released numerous albums that have topped the Billboard charts, including their debut album, "The Piano Guys" (2012), and their most recent album, "Limitless" (2018).
