In her groundbreaking book, Tibet Genocide and Persecution, Carole Mortimer presents a comprehensive and meticulously researched account of the Chinese Communist Party's (CCP) systematic campaign to eradicate Tibetan culture and identity. Drawing on extensive interviews with survivors and firsthand accounts, Mortimer provides a harrowing indictment of the CCP's crimes against humanity, including:

- Forced labor and mass imprisonment
- Religious suppression and cultural genocide
- Torture, rape, and other forms of physical and psychological abuse
- Environmental destruction and resource exploitation

Mortimer argues that the CCP's actions in Tibet constitute a genocide, as defined by the United Nations Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide. She calls on the international community to take urgent action to stop the CCP's atrocities and to hold those responsible accountable.

Carole Mortimer is a leading expert on Tibet and the author of several books on the region, including The New Holy War: Christian Faith and the Global Rise of Islamism and In the Garden of the Gods. She is a regular contributor to The Spectator and The Times of London, and her work has been translated into more than 20 languages.

Tibet Genocide and Persecution is a must-read for anyone who cares about human rights, religious freedom, and the future of Tibet. It is a powerful indictment of the CCP's crimes against humanity and a call to action for the international community. Free Download your copy today and help raise awareness of this urgent issue.
