Elizabeth Goodleigh is a young woman from a wealthy family who has lost everything in the war. Her fiancé was killed in action, and her home was destroyed. She is left alone and adrift, with no one to turn to.

Marthe is a young French woman who has also lost everything in the war. Her husband was killed in action, and her home was destroyed. She is left alone and pregnant, with no one to help her.

Elizabeth and Marthe meet by chance in a refugee camp. They are both grieving and alone, and they find comfort in each other's company. They form a bond that will last a lifetime.

The two women help each other to heal from their wounds. They share their stories, their hopes, and their dreams. They learn to laugh again, and they learn to love again.

But their happiness is short-lived. Elizabeth is still grieving for her fiancé, and Marthe is struggling to raise her child on her own. They both have secrets that they are keeping from each other, and these secrets threaten to tear them apart.

Tu Me Manques Elizabeth Goodleigh is a story about the power of love and the strength of the human spirit. It is a story about the importance of forgiveness and the healing power of time.

This novel is a must-read for anyone who has ever experienced loss or heartache. It is a story that will stay with you long after you finish reading it.
