These ranks represent progressive levels of spiritual understanding and realization, providing a structured framework for practitioners to navigate the often-elusive path of enlightenment.

The Five Ranks

- Initial Awakening (Fa Xian): The first rank marks the initial glimmer of enlightenment, a profound shift in perspective that shatters preconceived notions and opens the mind to the boundless possibilities of reality.
- Gradually Eliminating Attachments (Du Bie): As the practitioner delves deeper into the path, they systematically shed attachments and defilements that hinder their spiritual progress.
- Seeing into One's Own Nature (Jian Xing): This transformative stage involves a profound understanding of one's true nature, penetrating the veils of illusion and revealing the inherent wisdom within.
- Equal and Non-Dual (Deng Di): The practitioner transcends duality and experiences a complete merging with the cosmos, recognizing the unity of all beings and phenomena.
- Entering the Source (Ru Di): The culmination of the journey, where the practitioner dissolves into the boundless expanse of the universe, becoming one with the ultimate reality.
